3. NEW COMPREHENSIVE ZONING BY-LAW PROJECT (10.5)

Presentation

This presentation relates to the staff report entitled “Information Report Update on Markham’s New Comprehensive Zoning By-Law Project, PR 13 128340”, agenda item # 3.

Anna Henriques, Senior Planner, Zoning and Special Projects, gave an introduction to the New Comprehensive Zoning By-law project, outlining the purpose and objectives, previous reviews, and today’s review.

John Gladki, Gladki Consulting Inc. gave a presentation entitled "New Comprehensive Zoning By-law Project". Mr. Gladki provided an overview of the discussion papers for: residential home occupations; infill housing and interface between residential and non-residential uses; affordable/shared housing and secondary suites; and, student housing.
The Committee discussed:

- Residential home occupations with respect to appropriate uses, parking issues, animal care, food production, and outdoor storage;
- Infill housing with respect to protecting the community character, ravine lots and coverage calculations, conversion of open second floor space to useable floor second floor space, calculating the floor area ratio, and compatible transitions;
- Affordable housing and shared housing with respect to rooming houses, group homes, and by-law enforcement for illegal units;
- Student housing with respect to Human Rights issues, prohibition by the Planning Act to distinguish between related and unrelated occupants, crafting definitions that will enable enforcement for illegal units; and accommodating the needs of University students.

The next steps include Open House and stakeholder meetings in October and November, and a Zoning Issues Analysis Report is targeted for presentation to the Committee by December, 2015. It was noted that public notice should be clear that the Project is still early on in the process and the issues that are being considered.

Moved by: Councillor Alan Ho
Seconded by: Councillor Alex Chiu

That the presentation provided by Anna Henriques, Senior Planner and John Gladki, Gladki Consulting Inc. entitled "New Comprehensive Zoning By-law Project" be received. CARRIED
